

News from the Hill

Our Gardens are Growing!

On the afternoon of August 5, under a beautiful cerulean sky, trustees and guests gathered to dedicate the newly-installed Sunken Garden and celebrate its opening to the public.

Chairman of the Board, Joe Valle, welcomed guests with a special acknowledgement of Mary Lou Smith. Mrs. Smith, whose passionate dedication to Highfield Hall is in large part responsible for the building being saved, was the guest-of-honor for the event. Funding for the garden was donated by two life-long Woods Hole residents, Mary Draper Janney and Nancy Norman Lassalle, who made their contributions so that the garden would be dedicated in honor of Mrs. Smith, their long-time friend. Mrs. Janney and Mrs. Lassalle, who are both enthusiastic gardeners, spoke at the dedication and cut the official yellow ribbon, with the help of Joe Valle and Smith daughters Chastity, Prudence, Deborah, and Rebecca.

The garden was designed by Lucinda Brockway, a landscape preservationist from Kennebunk, Maine, to sympathetically recreate the garden as originally designed by Ernest Bowditch in the nineteenth century and wrought by the Beebe family and their gardening staff from 1880 to 1930. Installed by TNB Landscaping, the garden features cannas, iris, blanket flower, wormwood, regal lily, peony, salvia, yucca and daylily in geometrical beds bordered by dwarf boxwoods. Beds hugging the stone wall will be planted in the spring and will include dahlia, spirea, harebell, monkshood, hosta, phlox and zinnia.

Additional work on the landscape restoration will continue into the fall and winter along with fundraising for this effort. If funding goals are met, installation of the West Garden will move forward in 2012. The landscaped paths and gardens will provide historic context for visitors to the mansion, while at the same time creating an inspirational recreation space for residents.

Clockwise from above: Long-time friends Nancy Lassalle, Mary Lou Smith and Mary Janney celebrate the garden; Chairman Joe Valle speaks to those assembled; the Sunken Garden; Pat Flynn recounts Mary Lou Smith's role in saving Highfield Hall; the ribbon is cut by Joe Valle, Nancy Lassalle, Mary Janney, and the four Smith daughters while Barbara Milligan and Pat Flynn hold the ribbon

Business Partners Play a Starring Role

Brian and Nichole Litchfield of TNB Landscaping were awarded the contract for the Sunken Garden. Their time and commitment went far beyond the bid documents, a fact that is evident in the finished product. Other businesses who contributed to the success of the garden include Dale Tree Movers and Miskovsky Landscaping, without whom it would not have been possible to move and replant a 40 year old beech tree from the garden to the front lawn; Kristin and Doug Shearer at Paine's Patio who facilitated the teak benches, donating many of them; and Grafton Briggs of Baker Monument who facilitated the stone benches and engraving.

Historic Highfield now has nearly 100 businesses and corporations who sustain Highfield Hall through gifts, most of which are in-kind services and products. These in-kind gifts translated into almost $100,000 in support in the last fiscal year – extraordinary! To learn more about our business partner program visit www.highfieldhall.org/business_partners.

Programming for Children and Families Launched with Federal Grant

In late July, Historic Highfield was awarded a $76,000 federal grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS). The grant, through the Museums for America program, will create a new educational initiative at Highfield Hall that will focus primarily on programming for children and families.

The project, "Building Capacity through Programming Excellence" will bring best practices in educational programming to Highfield Hall to ensure programs are reflective of community need, based on clear strategic outcomes, and effectively measured against those outcomes. The funding will increase program resources by providing staffing, staff training, and an improved infrastructure for tracking and utilizing program information.

Elizabeth Nevins, a museum education consultant from Malden, Massachusetts, will help guide the project and establish priorities. Nevins, who holds a masters degree in Museum Education and Early Adolescent Education, has worked with Historic New England, the Old North Foundation, and the Connecticut Historical Society. Grant funds will allow Historic Highfield to hire a part-time education coordinator to develop and present family programs across the subject areas of art, history, culinary, gardens and nature.

The Institute of Museum and Library Services is a grant-making federal agency supporting museums and libraries across the United States. The IMLS received 281 applications requesting nearly $54,000,000 in funds and made 160 awards totaling more than $18,000,000. There were 15 grants awarded in Massachusetts which included the Museum of Science, the Institute of Contemporary Art, The Peabody Museum at Harvard, and the Massachusetts Historical Society. This is the second IMLS, Museums for America grant to be awarded to Historic Highfield. The first, in 2008, funded the installation of a permanent exhibition, The Highfield Story.

In the Spotlight

Historic Highfield, Inc. elected four new trustees to the board at their annual meeting held at Highfield Hall on July 21. The four new trustees are Sandy Smith of Falmouth, Rob Goldsborough of Sippewissett, Fred Greenman of Wellesley and West Falmouth, and Marilyn Fox of Falmouth. Joe Valle of East Falmouth was returned to the office of Chairman for a third year and Meg Pierce of Weston and Woods Hole was elected Vice Chair. Trustee Sandy Richardson was honored for her years of volunteer leadership and event chairmanship by being the first recipient of the "Sandra L. Richardson Award for Outstanding Service to Historic Highfield." Pictured above at Highfield Hall are, from left, Sandy Smith, Rob Goldsborough, Sandy Richardson, Fred Greenman, and Marilyn Fox.

Jennifer Nemec

If you call Highfield Hall, Jennifer will answer! In late July we were fortunate to add Jennifer Nemec to our staff as our Administrator.

Jennifer comes to us most recently from the Waldorf School of Cape Cod where she served in a similar role. A pro at customer service, computer software, and database management, Jennifer has been embraced by our staff with open arms. A background in graphic design and love of art just add to Jennifer's impact on the organization. Jennifer lives in Plymouth with her two sons and husband, Bill.

Jim Robertson

You might spot Jim Robertson out on the grounds, mulching, weeding, watering, or completing one of the many chores that fall under Jim's job description as a landscape volunteer. Jim, who has been helping us on the grounds for more than a year, is the linchpin for our new garden volunteer group. If you see him on the grounds – say thank you!

Karen Rawley

Have you taken a culinary class at Highfield Hall? You've probably met Karen Rawley! Karen is our go-to culinary volunteer, assisting Gail Blakely with the presentation of numerous cooking classes. A talented cook and event planner in her own right, Karen lends her expertise for the benefit of Highfield Hall. And you should taste her cheesecake! Thanks Karen.

TD Bank

Many thanks to TD Bank for underwriting from the TD Charitable Foundation for our 2011 exhibition season. Support from the foundation helped pay for exhibition openings and publicity, exhibit supplies, and additional staff to manage these activities. Above, Marjorie Macy, Vice President and Falmouth Store Manager, presents the $5,000 check to Executive Director Barbara Milligan. Thanks TD!

In Memoriam

While each year many Highfielders leave us to join the Beebe family in the great beyond, we want to especially acknowledge the passing of Mary Jean Howard. Mary Jean was a great friend to Highfield Hall and a dedicated front desk volunteer from the moment we opened our doors in 2006. We counted on her every Friday and our staff looked forward to celebrating the end of each work week with Mary Jean. When we launched our campaign for the landscape restoration, Mary Jean was the very first to buy a block – and hers will be the very first to be laid in the new West Garden terrace. It is volunteers like Mary Jean who help make Highfield a joyous place to be – she is missed!

Beebe Society

Mary Jean Howard was a member of the Beebe Society – and you can be as well. The Beebe Society is our planned giving recognition society, designed to honor those who have remembered Highfield Hall by planning a long-term gift as part of their estate. If you have included Historic Highfield in your estate, please let us know so you can be recognized! If you would like information about estate planning or charitable gift annuities, please call Barbara Milligan, Executive Director, at 508-495-1878 x 301 or email director@highfieldhall.org.

To include Highfield Hall in your will, please use the following text:

"I give the sum of _____ Dollars ($_____) to Historic Highfield, Inc. of Falmouth, Massachusetts for its general purposes without restriction."
(Please note the exact legal name of the organization is required.)

A HOLIDAY GIFT for the person who has everything...

Buy them a Highfield Hall tribute block that will permanently reside in the West Garden! Your tax-deductible gift will support the restoration of the Highfield Hall landscape and provide a lasting memory for the person you are honoring. Teak and granite benches are also available. Bluegrass on the Lawn on July 21 was a blast with the New England Bluegrass Band, Falmouth Fiddlers, Three Cats and a Dog, and around 500 spectators. Many thanks to Sotheby's International Realty and the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod for making this event possible. Look for it again in 2012!

Roger Cook of This Old House packed our old house in July as part of Glories of the Garden. Pictured here are Barbara Milligan, Roger Cook, and David and Dawn Milligan (who drove from Indiana for a chance to meet Roger!). Thanks to Sotheby's for their sponsorship of this event for a second year.

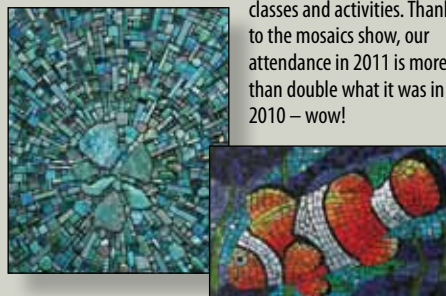

TEAM HIGHFIELD member Michael Ryan, a freshman at Falmouth High School, is cheered on by Robert Wyatt, Barbara Meissner, and Jan Danis as he passes the Highfield cheering section on Surf Drive. In total, TEAM HIGHFIELD raised more than $13,000 – a big thank you to all of our runners: D.B. Fowler, Jennifer Greenman, Erin Lardy, Marie Maloney, Mike Meissner, Caroline Pierce, Ron Pokraka, Michael Ryan, Justin Schlosser, Kay Tateronis, Joan Valle, Chris White and Aliza White.

Summer Events

The Ballroom was full of lively people every Wednesday night this summer as we staged a second successful season of "Tapas and Tastes." Noah and Janet Totten recruited myriad wine connoisseurs and vineyard owners to showcase wines from around the world, paired with tapas selections from our culinary coordinator, Gail Blakely.

Jim Bowen and Linda Dadak brought the National Mosaic Exhibition on Cape Cod to Highfield Hall this summer and its success was phenomenal! Artists and visitors came from all over the United States to view the show and participate in classes and activities. Thanks to the mosaics show, our attendance in 2011 is more than double what it was in 2010 – wow!

Deirdre Greelish of Mashpee was the grand prize winner in our 2011 Toyota Prius Benefit Raffle. Deirdre and her new car are pictured here with Chairman Joe Valle and former Chairman Mary Pat Flynn, who sold Deirdre her winning ticket. Second place, a bicycle from Art's Bike Shop, went to Diana Wald of Falmouth while the third place Radio Flyer Wagon went to Shirley Baker of Falmouth. Thank you to Falmouth Toyota, and to everyone who purchased (and sold) 525 tickets!

DONOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT JUNE 1, 2010 – MAY 31, 2011

With gratitude we acknowledge and thank the donors who have made gifts to Historic Highfield between June 1, 2010 and May 31, 2011.

Your gifts ensure that Highfield Hall will be preserved, used, and treasured for many generations. We have tried to make this report as accurate as possible. If your name has been omitted or misspelled, please contact us.

PENZANCE FOUNDATION MATCH

We were humbled by the outpouring of support Historic Highfield received in response to the matching opportunity offered by the Penzance Foundation for our Fiscal Year 2010/2011. With a goal of enlarging the Highfield Hall constituency, the Penzance Foundation challenged us to raise $400,000 across all fundraising efforts including annual fund, landscape campaign, and endowment campaign. Our board, volunteers, staff, and donors rallied to the charge, donating in total $470,886, which included more than $200,000 for our landscape and endowment campaigns. Matching funds are being used to create a reserve capital fund and a reserve operating fund so that improvements and repairs to the building and programming initiatives can be funded over the next five years. About $150,000 will also be expended on building repairs and improvements in the spring of 2012. THANK YOU to the Penzance Foundation and to all of the donors who participated in this extraordinary effort, ensuring that Highfield Hall is on firm footing for the future.
